

I'm worried about getting school dinners

The dining hall can seem like a large scary place but it's really ok once you get the hang of using it!

Mrs Sellars and Mrs Smyth go into dinner with students who need additional support and sit with them whilst they eat and have a chat. They will help you get your cutlery and tray and help you through the till. They really enjoy sitting with students and listening to all the things they have been doing during the day.

The ladies in the kitchen are very friendly and will help you with your food choices if you would like them to. There are also senior members of staff on duty in the dining room if you need to ask them any questions.

Chicken boxes and cornflakes buns are always very popular!
