

English Language

Subject Information Sheet

Course Title:	English
Subject:	English Language
Qualification:	A LEVEL (7702), AS (7701)
Exam Board:	AQA
General Course Description	This course allows you to explore, discuss, analyse and evaluate language in all its varied and exciting forms. It also allows to recreate language and write creatively for a specific audience and purpose. You will be expected to learn the terminology, methods and processes that you need to analyse the language of English. You will be exploring data about language and transcripts of dialogue as well. You will be preparing to use these skills in examinations and coursework pieces.
Course Content and Teaching Units	Paper 1: Language, the individual and society You will study a range of texts, audiences and genres. You will learn comprehensive methods of language analysis in areas such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Grammar • Lexis • Pragmatics • Discourse You will explore how representations are produced and you will also study child language development. Paper 2: Language diversity and change In this unit you will identify, research and explore how language has changed, the process by which the changes occur and how diversity is created.

	You will explore areas such as dialect, sociolect and idiolect. Areas such as age and gender are always particularly interesting for students in this unit. This unit will build on your methods of analysis introduced in Unit 1 and also allows you to debate issues in greater depth. In the exam, you will also be required to write creatively in response to some of the texts you have analysed and evaluated. Coursework You will complete two pieces of coursework totalling 3500 words. Your first piece is an Original Writing assignment, which allows you to write creatively at length, expressing many of the ideas you have analysed over the duration of the course. Your second piece is a Language Investigation. You will explore an area of language which particularly interests you, collect data and research, before writing your findings and conclusions. This is always an individual and fascinating task in which you get to express your ideas about something that personally interests you.
Entry Requirements	GCSE English Language - High Grade 5 or better
Assessment	Paper 1: Language, the individual and society (2 hour 30 minute exam) 40% Paper 2: Language diversity and change (2 hour 30 minute exam) 40% Coursework (2 pieces: 1 language investigation, 1 creative writing) 20%
Financial Information	N/A
Progression Opportunities	As with all Arts subjects, English courses offer entry to a huge range of further course and careers. Whether you are interested in courses and careers such as teaching, law, journalism or civil service roles, or you are seeking an alternative to your other courses to provide variety to your CV, you could not select a better course than English Language.

	In the past two years, students who studied our English courses have progressed to study some of the following courses in universities such as University of Sheffield, University of Birmingham, Durham University and the University of Oxford: English Language and Literature, Law, Sociology, Criminology, Journalism, Psychology, Creative Writing, Medical Anthropology, History, Accounting and Finance and Nursing. It provides you the opportunity to develop higher level thinking, discussion and writing skills, as well as exploring a huge variety of topics, contextual settings and wider ideas.
Further information about our courses, including results	In English Language at GCSE level, we maintained our excellent record of providing quality teaching and delivering excellent results. In the first year of the new GCSE courses, we secured 28.9% Grades 7-9 (A/A*), 81.3%Grades 4-9 and 65.9% Grades 5-9. In A Level Language, we gained 55.4% A*-B and our A*-C attainment rose to 81.8%, showing a year-on-year increase in that area. Our coursework marks were once again significantly above the level achieved by similar schools and our coursework support for A Level students is comprehensive. You will be studying a course in a department which has a proven record of outstanding teaching. As a department, we also offer A Level English Literature. As a department, we attained good results in A Level English Literature, with our three year average 46%.
Trips, visits and extracurricular	Creative writing club on offer along with newsletter committee. Department also organise trips to plays, museums and University for subject specific lectures.