Anti-Bullying Policy

Bullying is 'deliberately hurtful behaviour, repeated over a period of time'. Bullying can take many forms, these include:

- Physical bullying (hitting, kicking, theft ...)
 - Verbal bullying (racist, sexist, homophobic comments and name calling)
 - Indirect bullying (e.g. spreading rumours ...)
 - New technology bullying (texting, happy slapping, email, social networking sites ...)
- (Appendix 2)

Bullying comes in many forms and is an evolving and changing area.

Philosophy

The Anti-Bullying Policy is based around the following statements of purpose:

- All bullying is unacceptable. This is regardless of who bullies or how the bullying is delivered or what reasons are given to justify bullying actions.
- School recognises the negative effect on children and young people who may be subjected to bullying. All evidence shows that students who feel safe, work harder and achieve more.
- Victims of bullying should always be treated in a supportive manner by staff. All King Egbert staff are aware of the importance of dealing with bullying incidents effectively.
- The harmful effects on school performance and social development which may be caused by bullying are recognised by School.
- Students who bully need to change their behaviour (it is the behaviour not the person that is condemned) and they too will need support to do this. Bullying is a transient form of behaviour and students who bully need support to change that behaviour.

Statement of Intent

The aim of the policy is to remove all bullying behaviour at School. We have a zero tolerance approach to bullying. All stakeholders sign A Charter for Action (Appendix 1) committing themselves and the school community to non toleration of bullying. Our objectives with this policy are:

- To further create an environment at School in which bullying is viewed as inappropriate in all circumstances and at all times.
- To provide strategies and guidance for all stakeholders on how to reduce bullying incidents. All stakeholders will include students and parents. (Appendix 1 and Appendix 3).

School has developed a wide range of initiatives in this area and the school is constantly reviewing and updating its approaches. Current initiatives include:

- Peer mediation and mentoring
- Learning mentors
- Use of referral meetings
- Anonymous email reporting referral
- Referral forms
- Anti Bullying contracts
- Outside agencies e.g. the community police liaison officer
- Heads of Year and Form Tutors
- Assemblies

- PSHE/Citizenship programme
- To put into place appropriate support for both the victim and the student(s) who bully, it is important that there is an end to the incident.
- To recognise that we all have a responsibility for challenging bullying behaviour. If everyone challenges bullying in all its forms then we can create a culture within the school of respect and tolerance.
- To have a clear process by which students can report bullying incidents and to ensure that reported incidents are thoroughly investigated. All relevant stakeholders will be informed of the outcomes from the investigation. It is important that students are aware of how to inform on bullying incidents, as this can be one of the most difficult areas for students.
- To ensure that all bullying incidents are recorded. We need as a school to know what the level of bullying is like and to ensure that bullying is decreased year on year. Bullying incidents will be recorded on the behavioural referral forms.

Entitlements in King Ecgbert School

Whilst a student is on the school premises or on the way to school, they are entitled:

- To feel safe, secure and not made to feel unhappy – at all times.
- Not to be touched against their will.
- Not to be teased about their race, gender, sexuality, disability, home life, weight, performance at school or physical appearance.
- To not be spoken about in a negative and hurtful way.
- We are further developing our culture within school which allows all students to feel safe and contented. This will further help to support the drive to improve standards.

Support for those who are bullied

Support for the victim of bullying is at the centre of all that we do in this area. A comprehensive programme of support for the victim of bullying is put into place and part of this programme is to ensure that the bullying behaviour is stopped. We will then ensure that all parties can move forward and fulfil their potential at school. We will at all times ensure that bullying incidents are dealt with promptly and brought to a quick and satisfactory conclusion. A large number of staff can be involved in this process, including tutors, teachers, learning mentors, pastoral support staff, the Heads of Year and the Senior Leadership Team. The school will keep parents informed about incidents of bullying and the outcomes.

Support for the student(s) who bully

We recognise that bullying behaviour is often a consequence of other factors. We want to support the student(s) who bully to modify their behaviour and to take a full and productive part in school life. Stopping bullying behaviour is a major move forward for all concerned.

To achieve this we will work closely with the students who bully to modify their offending behaviour. This programme of change will involve a number of King Ecgbert staff and may also involve outside parties where appropriate. We will actively encourage parent participation in this support programme.

Making bullying unacceptable is a key part of our role. We need to modify student behaviour to ensure that bullying is eradicated from King Ecgbert School.

System for reporting bullying incidents

We cannot act if we are unaware of the bullying incident. We encourage students to report all incidents of bullying to the following people:

- Form Tutor
- Heads of Year
- Learning Mentor
- Teacher
- Parent or Carer
- Friends/Peers

Bullying incidents will be recorded on the behavioural referral form and will also be recorded using the Sheffield Children and Young People's Directorate bullying reporting template. Governors will regularly be updated on the number of bullying incidents.

The number of bullying incidents will be reviewed regularly by key staff, including the Heads of Year and the Senior Leadership Team.

Other factors

- Teachers will always listen to reports of bullying behaviours.
- Teachers will listen to victims of bullying, but will make clear that to resolve the problem other people will need to be informed and involved.
- There will be regular training, support and guidance for all staff.

Our aim is nothing less than to remove the scourge of bullying from King Egbert School. We recognise that bullying, in all its forms, can have a serious affect on those involved. Safe and contented students will achieve more and will develop into committed and involved citizens.

Bullying – A Charter for Action

We are working with staff, students and parents to create a school community where bullying is not tolerated.

Our school community

- Discusses, monitors and reviews our anti-bullying policy on a regular basis.
- Supports students to identify and tackle bullying appropriately.
- Ensures that students are aware that all bullying concerns will be dealt with quickly, sensitively and effectively.
- Reports back quickly to parents/carers regarding their concerns on bullying.

e-Safety Rules

These e-Safety Rules help to protect students and the school by describing acceptable and unacceptable computer use.

- The school owns the computer network and can set rules for its use.
- It is a criminal offence to use a computer or network for a purpose not permitted by the school.
- Irresponsible use may result in the loss of network or internet access.
- Network access must be made via the user's authorised account and password, which must not be given to any other person.
- All network and internet use must be appropriate to education.
- Copyright and intellectual property rights must be respected.
- Messages shall be written carefully and politely, particularly as email could be forwarded to unintended readers.
- Anonymous messages and chain letters are not permitted.
- Users must take care not to reveal personal information through email, personal publishings, blogs or messaging.
- The school ICT systems may not be used for private purposes, unless the Headteacher has given specific permission.
- Use for personal financial gain, gambling, political activity, advertising or illegal purposes is not permitted.

The school may exercise its right to monitor the use of the school's computer system, including access to websites, the interception of email and the deletion of inappropriate materials where it believes unauthorised use of the school's computer system may be taking place, or the system may be being used for criminal purposes or for storing unauthorised or unlawful text, imagery or sound.

All students use computer facilities including Internet access as an essential part of learning, as required by the National Curriculum. Both students and their parents/carers are asked to sign to show that the e-Safety Rules have been understood and agreed.

Students' Agreement

- I have read and I understand the school e-Safety Rules.
- I will use the computer, network, mobile phones, Internet access and other new technologies in a responsible way at all times.
- I know that network and Internet access may be monitored.
