

Bridging Work – ‘Searching for rights and freedom in the 20th Century’

Unit One: USA 1917-1996

Task One: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/guides/zdvfydm/revision/1>

Visit this BBC bitesize page and create a mind map entitled ‘USA in the 1920s’ which will include all key information. Remember to click through each of the pages; there are six to read.

We are looking for your ability to select, summarise and include relevant key details.

You will use this mind map as part of our first topic in Unit One

Task Two: Read the document labelled ‘academic reading’. This is a chance to have a go at reading something more challenging that you will have read for your GCSE lessons. Whilst reading this you will write a page of notes, no longer than one side of A4. It is a good idea to write one detailed sentence for each paragraph which summaries the important details.

You will use these notes when we begin to study our ‘Civil Rights’ topic as part of Unit One.

Once you have completed this task please move on to the Unit Two task for South Africa on the separate document.
